

MRS. MAAG'S CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT PLAN

MATH
designed by freepik

Required Material

- Paper/Spiral Notebook
- Pencils/Pens
- Laptop
- Calculator
- ID
- Your Homework
- Positive, Respectful Attitudes towards me and your classmates

Homework Policy

Homework is your practice. If you don't do it, you're not getting the practice needed to succeed on quizzes and tests.

Daily homework assignments will be based mostly on completion. Since it is your practice, I do not expect you to know everything right away. I do, however, expect you to try.

Late Homework:

If you are absent from my class, you must get your assignments the very next day you return to school for what you missed. You can always check Google Classroom. Even if you remote the day you return to "school", you are still required to get what you missed. If you do not turn the assignment when it is due you may turn it in the next class period for 1/2 credit.

Beginning of Class Procedures

When you do get here, there may be a Bell Ringer on the board. If we have had homework the night before, take it out and be ready to ask me questions. When you finish checking homework, do the opening class activity. You should get used to looking for it and getting started on it as soon as you can.

When you are finished with the opening class activity, be an active learner. Get your materials out and ready to go on the next section. Review the previous section notes or study.

Behavior Expectations

 All School Rules apply to our classroom as well. *****

Consequences

- 1st offense --- Warning
- 2nd offense ---Conference with student
-----Call home to parents/guardian
- 3rd offense --- Detention with me
- 4th offense --- Referral to office
- Additional offenses --- Referral to office or Additional Detentions

Rewards-Includes, but not limited to

- Good grades
- Extra Credit
- Air High Fives
- Verbal praise
- Decreased homework assignments
- Smiles
- Woo Hoos!!!
- Homework passes

Need Help?

Contact me: cmaag@bethalto.org